

Jake "Body by Jake" Steinfeld Partners with Keurig Dr Pepper and L.A. Libations to Disrupt the Nutrition Shake Category with "Don't Quit! ®"

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 10, 2020 / PRNewswire/ -- Fitness icon Jake "Body by Jake" Steinfeld, the man responsible for creating the personal fitness training industry over 40 years ago, announced today the launch of Don't Quit!, a true one-stop daily complete nutrition shake and meal supplement. Unlike many competitors, Don't Quit is a clean-label meal-replacement brand - containing no soy, no wheat, no corn, and no artificial flavors, colors or sweeteners. It also provides a great source of protein with as little as one gram of sugar.

"My life's work has always been about providing hope and good health to all Americans," said Jake Steinfeld. "The two words that have guided my life - "Don't Quit!" - have never been more important than the current moment. My new Don't Quit! nutrition shakes have an incredibly clean label and they taste delicious! Life is about moments; and the moment has come to shake up the world with Don't Quit!"

Packed with 26 essential vitamins and minerals, Don't Quit! Original comes in four fantastic flavors: chocolate, chai tea, orangesicle, and vanilla. Each ready-to-drink nutrition shake provides a generous 10g of protein. Don't Quit! MAX shakes come in chocolate and vanilla, and pack 30g of protein with only 1g of sugar.

"Don't Quit! has the clean-label advantage for which doctors like me have been long advocating. Until now, many of the options that patients had to choose from included ingredients that can cause inflammation and digestive problems in some consumers. With Don't Quit!, I feel confident that my patients are going to get the protein, nutrients, and vitamins they need," said Judi Woolger, M.D., FACP, M.S., Associate Professor of Medicine, University of Miami Miller School of Medicine.

Don't Quit! has been Jake's mantra ever since he didn't make his eighth-grade basketball team. His dad bought him a set of weights that changed his life and propelled him to become the first Hollywood personal trainer with clients including Steven Spielberg and Harrison Ford. Jake is also the inventor of FitTV and ExerciseTV, and he's a New York Times and Wall Street Journal best-selling author. As Chairman of the National Foundation for Governors Fitness Councils, Jake has taken childhood obesity head-on working with communities to bring health, fitness and the spirit of Don't Quit! to kids across the country. Don't Quit! fitness centers have been placed in 32 states and counting.

Don't Quit! daily nutrition shakes are the latest extension of a movement - a movement built on health, nutrition and the spirit of Don't Quit! to help people thrive in life. The foundation of Don't Quit! is built upon powerful words from a poem by John Greenleaf Whittier that fueled Jake's drive to overcome obstacles: "Stick to the fight when you're hardest hit. It's when things seem worst that you must not quit."

Minority investors in Don't Quit! nutrition shakes include Keurig Dr Pepper and L.A. Libations. "Our investment in Don't Quit! daily nutrition shakes gives Keurig Dr Pepper the opportunity to fill white space within our beverage portfolio with a differentiated product in the adult nutrition category that's clamoring for clean ingredients and innovation," said Derek Hopkins, Chief Commercial Office for Keurig Dr Pepper. "No matter the age range, today's consumers understand the importance of staying healthy and active. We are excited to partner with Jake - a pioneer in the fitness category for four decades - and his new line of clean shakes to provide a better solution for American's daily nutritional needs."

"There is white space in the adult nutrition category for a clean-label great-tasting option that consumers can believe in and be proud of," said Danny Stepper, CEO of L.A. Libations and Co-Founder of Don't Quit! "With Don't Quit!, the promise of real adult nutrition has finally arrived."

Don't Quit! daily nutrition shakes are available at select retailers nationwide, including Safeway, Kroger and Walmart, and at DontQuit.com with a suggested retail price of $8.99 for a six-pack of Don't Quit Original and $9.99 for a four-pack of Don't Quit MAX. Orders begin shipping today, Aug. 10.
